MAUNDER'S PATENT

Farmers examine this Harrow before purchasing any other. The best Harrow in the world for the following reasons: 1. It is the strongest of the same weight. 2. It is the lightest draught 3. It has steel teeth instead of iron. 4. The teeth are driven through a malleable clip fastened around the ball, thereby strengthening the bar at the same time. No holes punched through the bars to weaken them. No nuts to rattle mine host. The utmost harmony loose. No shoulders on the teeth to weaken them as in the old iron har row, thereby making the STRONGEST, LIGHTEST, MOST DURABLE & CHEAPEST hour wended their way homeward delighted with the evening's proof nut teeth and being of steel will last much longer. Thursday eve., Dec. 10, at which a nice time was enjoyed. Mr. Smith was 53 years old that day.

Ed. Smith killed a pig the other day, five and one-half months old, the kidneys of which weighed 24 pounds. Another was killed by M. Mullen, the kidneys of which weigh-sumptuously spread with good things of all kinds. After partaking of supper many of those present sought the skating rink where good music was furnished for those who enjoyed the pleasure of dancing. About 6 o'clock last Tuesday morning our quiet village was star tled by the cry of fire, and on examination it was found to be in the building owned by Mrs. Mary E. Bailey, not insured, containing a $7,000 stock of general merchandise owned by Samuel Grey, insured for $3,000, of which but very little was saved. The fire spread to the building owned by A. E. Leonhard and occupied by him as a furniture store, no insurance on either stock or building, nearly everything in the building was saved. H. O. Babcock's place then took fire and about everything in the building was saved; no insurance whatever. It is supposed the cause of the fire was the explo-sion of a lamp which Mr. Gray and some others, who had been in the store but a short time before the fire packing poultry to send away that morning, had left burning. The losses are heavy on all the parties. The need of insurance is evident.
